

The 1996 telecommunications act has hurt diversity on the radio both in terms of the music that is played and the opinions that are aired. Clear Channel is a monopoly if i've ever seen one. Please do not make the situation worse by deregulating the industry even more! The vitality of our democracy has been damaged enough already.